

Dry Fir Trail #674A

Recreation Opportunity Guide

Distance..... 3.1 miles (one way)
Elevation..... 3600-4400 feet
Snow Free June to November

Trail Highlights: A lightly used forest trail with nice views near the top, and a couple of small creeks.

Trail Description: From the trailhead on the north end, the trail descends the ridge through the forest. Near the top, the trail crosses an old clear cut which provides views of Cascade Range, before plunging through the forest. The descent is moderate with many switchbacks. The trail terminates on the south end in an open logged out area.
